

First camera in 1954. (age 11) Contributing photographer to UW Madison year book in 1964. First SLR camera in the late 60's and photographic assistant in crew of USS Halibut (SSN 587) when she photographed the remains of a Russian submarine on the bottom of the Pacific (Project Azorian). Toured and photographed throughout Micronesia, Australia, New Zealand, Fiji, and Tahiti in the 70's while working at the Pacific Missile Range on Kwajalein in the Marshalls. Photographer in residence at Lou Helen Baha'i Institute in Davison, MI. Tutored young photographers and recorded events. Photographed the first three National Conference(s) on Race Amity in Boston. Produced illustrated engineering references for assault vehicles including the Abrams Tank at General Dynamics in Detroit. Out to take in and photograph various bands 3 or 4 times weekly in Detroit before retiring to Citrus Heights.